

New open lecture in English at the Institute of Archaeology

Everyday life in the Roman world

Prof. Mateusz Żmudziński - archaeologist

The course includes:

1. The world of ancient Egyptians and their everyday life. 2. The world of Mesopotamian people. 3. Greek House, Greek Town Planning. How did you live and live in a Greek city (home, political, social, sport, entertainment). 4. Greek temple. Ancient Greeks' religiosity. 5. Eating, drinking, feasting - Greek pottery, Greek vase painting. What is vase painting about? 6. The appearance of the Greeks, caring for the body, the ideal of beauty according to sculptors. 7. The mentality of the Hellenistic times - which shows us Hellenistic sculpture. 8. How the Romans lived 9. How the Romans spent their free time, utility buildings. 10. The army and its role in the Roman Empire. 11. Luxury and wealth in the Roman world. 12. Roman propaganda in historical relief, the official image in sculpture. 13. Funeral customs 14. Gladiators. 15 Chariot racing.

Prerequisites: none, ECTS: 6

every Wednesday at 8:30, room 304
Institute of Archaeology, Szewska str. 48 starting on Oct, 26th
sign up to learn more: iar@uwr.edu.pl